

MICHAEL WEAVER

MICHAEL ENJOYS HELPING PEOPLE THROUGH HIS JOB AT JC'S RESTAURANT. HE SAYS THE BEST PART OF HIS WORKDAY IS BEING ABLE TO TALK TO THE PEOPLE WHOM HE SEES REGULARLY AND GETTING TO SPEND A LITTLE TIME WITH THEM WHEN HE IS ON BREAK.

MICHAEL'S STORY

In 2018, Michael was on the search for a new job. That search led him to JC's Restaurant in Burton. With the help of his friend, he filled out an application, went in for the interview and was offered the position. He has been happily employed at JC's since July 16, 2018!

Through the help of an on-the-job trainer, Michael learned the whole process of working in the back safely, including how to correctly operate the dishwashing machine. Everything in the back has its own place and Michael quickly learned where everything goes after it is cleaned and dried. He excels in his job because he enjoys cleaning and helping people. Michael says the best part of his workday is being able to talk to the people whom he sees regularly and getting to spend a little time with them when he is on break.

"He is a good employee and we've never had a complaint," said John and Cindy Chambers, the owners of JC's. "Michael is always polite and smiling. He hugs everyone like they are his family and greets everyone in the morning when he walks in the door."

When he is not at work, Michael enjoys spending time with his large and close-knit family, watching Netflix, playing golf and running track. He is also a fitness buff and works out regularly by lifting weights and using workout machines. Michael is always up for an adventure and loves to travel as well!
