Joe Bina, an individual served by the Board, has found a job that he enjoys in the kitchen at the Weils Assisted Living Community in Chagrin Falls.

JOE'S STORY

Joe's coworkers describe him as a very valuable team player. He is consistently on time and ready to work when his shift starts, and he takes the initiative to start working on his responsibilities without being told. His supervisor says that he is a role model to the teenage staff members who he works with. Joe is responsible for washing the pots and pans utilized by the cooks, as well as place settings for about 80 people. He also delivers dinner room trays to residents of the Weils. Joe enjoys his job because of the independence he has at work. His coworkers say that he needs very little direction to complete his daily tasks, and that he loves having so many responsibilities.
